

This large scale mapping project benefited from the use of orthometric aerial photography as a background for delineating property lines and wetland boundaries. Comprehensive land use planning often requires innovative mapping solutions. With the AES Surveying and Mapping team on board early in this project, the chances are excellent that the adaptive reuse of the former Clinton County Airport will become another major success story here in the North Country.

Client: The Development Corporation
61 Area Development Drive
Plattsburgh, NY 12901

Contact: Adore' Kurtz, Past President
518-563-3100